Terms and Conditions of Membership

Membership term

The minimum period of membership is one year. Membership will commence on the first of the month following the payment of membership fees as agreed. Renewals will be advised in the month prior to this date on an annual basis. Member organisations are required to provide one calendar months' notice of resignation. The named subscription is payable during this period, and all named benefits apply. Membership will be suspended where no notice of resignation has been received and any renewal fee has not been paid within a three month period. As outlined above, membership will be payable for this period.

Member representatives

All member organisations are requested to identify an individual to act as their Nominated Representative. This is the person who acts as the member's representative.

Notification of changes to organisation

The Nominated Representative will inform Buildoffsite of any changes to its organisation, primarily with regard to contact details and changes to the nominated representative. In addition, in terms of turnover that will have an effect on its subscription band.

Fees

Payment is through annual membership fees agreed in advance. All membership fees quoted are exclusive of VAT.
